Lee County School District Internet Acceptable Use Agreement for Employees

The Lee County Board of Education (LCBOE) recognizes the importance of increasing access to technological learning opportunities available to students and staff. The LCBOE believes that this increases the potential to support curriculum and student learning in facilitating resource sharing, innovation, and communication. As resources permit, informational technology services shall be made available in schools.

The School District (hereafter "District") provides employees with electronic access including, but not limited to, an email system, a network connection, and Internet/Intranet access. The District also provides technology equipment including but not limited to desktop computers, laptop computers, iPads, cell phones, cameras, fax machines, and telephones. This Agreement governs all use of the District's network, Internet/Intranet access, email systems and technology equipment. Personal technology equipment or personal email accounts that access or use the District's network and the District's Internet/Intranet access are subject to this Agreement.

Use of the Network and the Internet is a privilege, not a right. Use of Network and Internet access extends throughout an employee's term of employment. The District reserves the right to suspend access at any time, without notice, for technical reasons, possible rule violations, security or other concerns.

Network and Internet access and technology equipment are provided as tools for District operations. The District reserves the right to monitor, inspect, copy, review, and store at any time, without prior notice, any and all usage of the Network and the Internet, as well as any and all materials, files, information, software, communications, and other content transmitted, received or stored in connection with this usage. All such information, content, and files are the property of the District. An employee shall have no expectation of privacy regarding them. Network administrators may review e-mails or files and intercept communications for any reason, including but not limited to, maintaining system integrity and ensuring employees are using the system consistent with this Agreement. The District reserves the right to disclose (release) text, images, or technology equipment to law enforcement agencies or appropriate third parties without the employee's consent.

District personnel shall take all available precautions to restrict access to controversial materials, while recognizing that it is impossible to control all material which might inadvertently be discovered by users on a global network. Inappropriate and/or illegal interaction with the information service is strictly prohibited.

By virtue of using District technology, employees are subject to the provisions of this acceptable use agreement. If any user violates these provisions, access to the information service may be denied and the user may be subject to disciplinary action.

Terms of Internet Usage

1. User Responsibility – District employees accept responsibility for reporting any misuse of the network to their supervisor. Misuse may come in many forms, but is commonly viewed as any message(s) sent or received that indicates or suggest pornography, unethical or illegal solicitation, racism, sexism, inappropriate language, and other issues described below.
2. Assigned Employee Account - The use of assigned employee accounts must be in support of education and research aligned with educational goals and objectives of the District. Employees are personally responsible for the following provisions at all times when using the electronic information service:
 - Use of other organization's networks or computing resources must comply with rules appropriate to that network.
 - Transmission of any material in violation of any law, rule or regulation is prohibited. This includes, but is not limited to: copyrighted material, threatening or obscene material, or material protected by trade secret.
 - Use of commercial activities by for-profit institutions is generally not acceptable.
 - Use of product advertisement or political lobbying is also prohibited.
3. Prohibited Activities – Employees are prohibited from using the District's email system, network, or Internet/Intranet access for the following activities:
 - Accessing, seeking, sending, forwarding, printing, or otherwise disseminating to unauthorized persons information deemed confidential by the District.
 - Making offensive or harassing statements based on race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, age, or sex.
 - Sending or forwarding messages containing defamatory, obscene, offensive, or harassing statements. An employee should notify a supervisor and/or the Superintendent or designee immediately upon receiving such a message. This type of message should not be forwarded.
 - Attempting to access or visit sites featuring pornography, terrorism, espionage, theft, or drugs.
 - Gambling or engaging in any other criminal activity in violation of local, state, or federal law.
 - Spending excessive time using personal email accounts and social networking sites during District time, for non-educational purposes.
 - Engaging in unethical activities or content.
 - Participating in activities, including the preparation or dissemination of content, which could damage the District's professional image, reputation and/or financial stability.
 - Permitting or granting use of an email or system account, including my own, to another employee or persons outside the District. Permitting another person to use an account or password, whose access has been denied or terminated.
 - Using another employee's password or impersonating another person while communicating or accessing the Network or Internet without the employee's consent.
 - Introducing a virus, harmful component, corrupted data or the malicious tampering.
 - Vandalism - Vandalism is defined as any malicious attempt to harm or destroy data of another user including any other public or private provider connected to the system. This includes, but is not limited to, the uploading or creation of malware of any kind. Any vandalism may result in the loss of computer services, disciplinary action, and legal referral.

4. Network Etiquette and Privacy - Users of the District network are expected to abide by the generally accepted rules of network etiquette.
5. Services - The District makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for electronic services provided. District is not responsible for any damages suffered while on this system. Potential damages may include, but are not limited to, loss of data, non-deliveries, deliveries to unintended recipients, or service interruptions. Use of any information obtained via the information system is at the risk of the user. The District specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy of information obtained through these services.
6. Security - Security is a high priority. Any employee identifying a security problem should notify the school administrator immediately. Never demonstrate the problem to other users. Never use another individual's account without written permission from that person. All use of the system must be under the user's assigned account. Any user identified as a security risk will be denied access to the information system.
7. Updating - The information service may occasionally require new registration and updated account information from the employee to continue the service. Employees must notify the information system of any changes in account information.
8. Social Media - When participating in social media activities, even off duty and off premises, such activities must not violate any LCBOE policies or otherwise interfere with the employee's or co-workers' job performance. All policies that govern employee behavior, ethics, performance and professionalism apply to social media, just as it would anywhere else. The Board expects all employees to exercise professionalism and good judgment in social media activities. Furthermore, social media activities must comply with all applicable laws including, but not limited to, anti-discrimination, anti-harassment, copyright, trademark, defamation, privacy, securities, and any other applicable laws and regulations.

Employees using the District's technology agree to abide by the provisions and conditions of this internet usage agreement. Employees are responsible for instructing and supervising students in their classes on acceptable use of the network and proper network etiquette.

WORKSHEET FOR CALCULATING ADDITIONAL ALLOWANCES

(Must be completed in order to enter an amount on step 5)

1. COMPLETE THIS LINE ONLY IF USING STANDARD DEDUCTION:

Yourself: Age 65 or over Blind
Spouse: Age 65 or over Blind Number of boxes checked x 1300

2. ADDITIONAL ALLOWANCES FOR DEDUCTIONS:

- A. Federal Estimated Itemized Deductions
B. Georgia Standard Deduction (enter one): Single/Head of Household $4,600 Each Spouse $3,000
C. Subtract Line B from Line A
D. Allowable Deductions to Federal Adjusted Gross Income
E. Add the Amounts on Lines 1, 2C, and 2D
F. Estimate of Taxable Income not Subject to Withholding
G. Subtract Line F from Line E
H. Divide the Amount on Line G by $3,000

(This is the maximum number of additional allowances you can claim. If the remainder is over $1,500 round up)

7. LETTER USED (Marital Status A, B, C, D, or E) TOTAL ALLOWANCES (Total of Lines 3 - 5)

8. EXEMPT: (Do not complete Lines 3 - 7 if claiming exempt) Read the Line 8 instructions on page 2 before completing this section.

- a) I claim exemption from withholding because I incurred no Georgia income tax liability last year and I do not expect to have a Georgia income tax liability this year.
b) I certify that I am not subject to Georgia withholding because I meet the conditions set forth under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act

I certify under penalty of perjury that I am entitled to the number of withholding allowances or the exemption from withholding status claimed on this Form G-4. Also, I authorize my employer to deduct per pay period the additional amount listed above.

Employee's Signature Date

Employer: Complete Line 9 and mail entire form only if the employee claims over 14 allowances or exempt from withholding. If necessary, mail form to: Georgia Department of Revenue, Withholding Tax Unit, 1800 Century Blvd NE, Suite 8200, Atlanta, GA 30345

9. EMPLOYER'S NAME AND ADDRESS: EMPLOYER'S FEIN:

EMPLOYER'S WH#:

Do not accept forms claiming additional allowances unless the worksheet has been completed. Do not accept forms claiming exempt if numbers are written on Lines 3 - 7.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM G-4

Enter your full name, address and social security number in boxes 1a through 2b.

Line 3: Write the number of allowances you are claiming in the brackets beside your marital status.

- A. Single – enter 1 if you are claiming yourself
- B. Married Filing Joint, both spouses working – enter 1 if you claim yourself
- C. Married Filing Joint, one spouse working – enter 1 if you claim yourself or 2 if you claim yourself and your spouse
- D. Married Filing Separate – enter 1 if you claim yourself
- E. Head of Household – enter 1 if you claim yourself

Line 4: Enter the number of dependent allowances you are entitled to claim.

Line 5: Complete the worksheet on Form G-4 if you claim additional allowances. Enter the number on Line H here.

Failure to complete and submit the worksheet will result in automatic denial on your claim.

Line 6: Enter a specific dollar amount that you authorize your employer to withhold in addition to the tax withheld based on your marital status and number of allowances.

Line 7: Enter the letter of your marital status from Line 3. Enter total of the numbers on Lines 3-5.

Line 8:

- a) Check the first box if you qualify to claim exempt from withholding. You can claim exempt if you filed a Georgia income tax return last year and the amount of Line 4 of Form 500EZ or Line 16 of Form 500 was zero, and you expect to file a Georgia tax return this year and will not have a tax liability. You cannot claim exempt if you did not file a Georgia income tax return for the previous tax year. Receiving a refund in the previous tax year does not qualify you to claim exempt.

EXAMPLES: Your employer withheld $500 of Georgia income tax from your wages. The amount on Line 4 of Form 500EZ (or Line 16 of Form 500) was $100. Your tax liability is the amount on Line 4 (or Line 16); therefore, you do not qualify to claim exempt.

Your employer withheld $500 of Georgia income tax from your wages. The amount on Line 4 of Form 500EZ (or Line 16 of Form 500) was $0 (zero). Your tax liability is the amount on Line 4 (or Line 16) and you filed a prior year income tax return; therefore you qualify to claim exempt.

- b) Check the second box if you are not subject to Georgia withholding and meet the conditions set forth under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act. Under the Act, a spouse of a servicemember may be exempt from Georgia income tax on income from services performed in Georgia if:
 1. The servicemember is present in Georgia in compliance with military orders;
 2. The spouse is in Georgia solely to be with the servicemember;
 3. The servicemember maintains domicile in another state; and
 4. The domicile of the spouse is the same as the domicile of the servicemember or the spouse of the servicemember has elected to use the same residence for purposes of taxation as the servicemember.

Additional information for employers regarding the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act:

1. On the W-2 the employer should not report any of the wages as Georgia wages.
2. If the spouse of a servicemember is entitled to the protection of the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act in another state and files a withholding exemption form in such other state, the spouse is required to submit a Georgia Form G-4 so that withholding will occur as is required by Georgia Law when a Georgia domiciliary works in another state and withholding is not required by such other state. If the spouse does not fill out the form, the employer shall withhold Georgia income tax as if the spouse is single with zero allowances.

Worksheet for calculating additional allowances. Enter the information as requested by each line. For Line 2D, enter items such as Retirement Income Exclusion, U.S. Obligations, and other allowable deductions per Georgia Law, see the IT-511 booklet for more information.

Do not complete Lines 3-7 if claiming exempt.

O.C.G.A. § 48-7-102 requires you to complete and submit Form G-4 to your employer in order to have tax withheld from your wages. By correctly completing this form, you can adjust the amount of tax withheld to meet your tax liability. Failure to submit a properly completed Form G-4 will result in your employer withholding tax as though you are single with zero allowances.

Employers are required to mail any Form G-4 claiming more than 14 allowances or exempt from withholding to the Georgia Department of Revenue for approval. Employers will honor the properly completed form as submitted pending notification from the Withholding Tax Unit. Upon approval, such forms remain in effect until changed or until February 15 of the following year. Employers who know that a G-4 is erroneous should not honor the form and should withhold as if the employee is single claiming zero allowances until a corrected form has been received.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

▶ Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

▶ Give Form W-4 to your employer.

▶ Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		▶ Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately <input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly (or Qualifying widow(er)) <input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2-4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, when to use the online estimator, and privacy.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

(a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3-4); or

(b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below for roughly accurate withholding; or

(c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld ▶

TIP: To be accurate, submit a 2020 Form W-4 for all other jobs. If you (or your spouse) have self-employment income, including as an independent contractor, use the estimator.

Complete Steps 3-4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3-4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependents	If your income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 ▶ $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 ▶ $ _____ Add the amounts above and enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	▶ _____ Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)	▶ _____	Date

General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) — Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____

- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
 - a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a 2a $ _____
 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

- 3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc. 3 _____

- 4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld) 4 $ _____

Step 4(b) — Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person with no other entries on the form; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

Lee County Schools 403(b) and 457(b) Plans

UNIVERSAL AVAILABILITY NOTICE – 2019

Lee County Schools provides you with the opportunity to save for your retirement through a 403(b) and/or a 457(b) Plan (“Plans”). Your employer would like you to know more about how you can participate in the Plans. Whether you want to enroll in the Plans, or you are already enrolled but wish to change the amount of your deferral, you can accomplish your goal by contacting your benefits department.

Please take a moment to review the plan brochure or website before enrolling. Once you are enrolled, you can review and change the amount of your contributions and your investment allocations at any time. The exact date your investment allocations will take effect may vary depending upon the policies of the financial service firm providing the investment options you chose for plan contributions.

Eligibility

All employees of the school district who receive compensation reportable on an IRS Form W-2 are eligible to participate in the Plans.

2019 IRS Limits

The limit on elective deferrals - the most an employee can contribute to either plan is $19,000.

Employees who are age 50 or over at the end of the calendar year can also make catch-up contributions of $6,000 beyond the basic limit on elective deferrals.

Please note that this amount applies to all 403(b) accounts you may have. For example, if you work for more than one employer and you are also a participant in a 403(b) plan of the other employer, your combined contributions into both plans is $19,000. You are responsible for tracking and reporting the amount of all of your contributions to the 403(b) plans so that the total amount of all your contributions to all plans in which you participate do not exceed the limit.

The sum of all of your contributions, and those of your employers, to all 403(b) plans that you participate in are generally limited to the lesser of $56,000 or 100% of your compensation.

The rules for the 457 plan are the same. Therefore, you can actually contribute $19,000/$25,000 to each type of plan.

A NOTE FROM LEE COUNTY SUB COORDINATOR – AMY BACON

1. Must be 21! First step is taking the RESA class in which you can register for at www.swresa.org cost is $35 and it is a class that is virtual. The only ones that do not take it is if you hold a Valid Georgia Teaching Certificate.
2. Once class is done and you are certified to substitute then please go to the LC Board of Education to pick up a sub packet. Please complete and return with necessary documentation. RESA usually emails us the names/certificates once the class is complete. Class must be done to pick up a packet.
3. Once returning materials you will be given forms to have fingerprints and background check completed.
4. After all is completed your name will come up for board approval and we can get you going!

Please if you know anyone, anywhere regardless of situation if you can only work a few days a week due to another job, school, etc....I can work with you. I just need folks to substitute!

Again age must be 21, dependability and transportation is important! If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at: baconam@lee.k12.ga.us  adding: Must have HSD or GED to substitute -

New pay rates for subs:

Non-certified Substitute - $83 a day
